

Medieval Seminar Series 2013-2014

All meetings Tuesdays 5-7 pm, Jozef Plateauzaal, Jozef Plateaustraat 22, 9000 Gent
(except for 15 Oct and 25 Nov 2013)

TUESDAY 15 OCTOBER 2013

Klooster Augustijnen

Gert Melville (TU Dresden, FOVOG: Research Centre for Comparative History of Religious Orders)
The Innovational Power of Monastic Life in the Middle Ages
Book presentation of Steven Vanderputten's collected studies on Benedictine Monasticism, 1050-1150: Reform, Conflict, and the Shaping of Corporate Identities

MONDAY 25 NOVEMBER 2013

Lokaal 2.16, Blandijnberg 2, 9000 Gent

Yasser Daoudi (UGent, The Near East & The Islamic World)
Ritual Politics in Fifteenth-Century Egypt and Syria: An Interdisciplinary Assessment of the Significance of Ritual in Mamluk Socio-Political Praxis
Prof. Frits van Oostrom (Universiteit Utrecht, Middeleeuwse Cultuur)
Van neerlandistiek naar mediëvistiek, en verder

TUESDAY 17 DECEMBER 2013

Stefan Meysman (UGent, Medieval History)
Middeleeuwse mannelijkheden: een comparatief onderzoek naar religieuze en profane mannelijke identiteit in de Hoge Middeleeuwen (late elfde tot begin veertiende eeuw)
Dr. Damien Boquet (Université de Provence - Aix-Marseille)
Émotions charnelles, émotions spirituelles : la double vie affective des saintes femmes au XIII^e siècle

TUESDAY 21 JANUARY 2014

Dr. Marjolein Stern (UGent, Henri Pirenne Institute for Medieval Studies)
Visual Communication and Runestones in Viking Age Scandinavia
Prof. Dagmar Eichberger (Universität Trier, Art History)
Gideon, an Old Testament Hero in Action. The Ghent Entry of 1582, Burgundian Symbolism and the Visual Language of Protestant Flanders

TUESDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2014

Koen Vanheule (UGent, Medieval History)
Monastic leadership in the post-charismatic age: constructing a new paradigm for the study of reforms before the emergence of the great Orders (Western Europe, tenth-early twelfth centuries)
Prof. Panagiotis Agapitos (University of Cyprus, Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies)
Conceptual boundaries and their contestation: The case of Byzantine literature and its history

TUESDAY 18 MARCH 2014

Márta Kondor (Central European University, Budapest, Medieval Studies / UGent, Medieval History)
Sigismund of Luxemburg and the Administration of His Realms (1410-1419)
Dr. Maaïke van Berkel (Universiteit van Amsterdam, Medieval History)
The Just City under the Mamluks

TUESDAY 13 MAY 2014

General Meeting
Presentations new PhD students
Prof. Sharon Farmer (UC Santa Barbara, History)
Gender and Silkwork: The origins of the Paris silk industry in the 13th century

TUESDAY 17 JUNE 2014

Annelies Somers (Rijksarchief Gent)
Een benadering van het laatmiddeleeuwse en vroegmoderne spanningsveld tussen vorstelijke en stedelijke netwerken in Gent vanuit religieus perspectief: de Sint-Niklaaskerk en het Sint-Veerlekapittel (1384-1614)
Prof. Stephen Rippon (University of Exeter, Archaeology)
Transformation and integration: the management of wetland landscapes in southern Britain during the medieval period